

FREE COMMUNITY FAMILY DRUM CIRCLES

AT VANDERCOOK COLLEGE OF MUSIC

Join us every Saturday from 11:00-11:45 a.m. for FREE family drum circles at VanderCook College of Music.

At our weekly family drum circles, kids enjoy interactive, creative music-making with parents, friends, and family using rhythm, song, and dance. Drum circles are moderated by Holly Mullenix, music teacher at the National Teachers Academy School in Chicago, and Michael Becker, world music instructor at VanderCook.

Who:

All are welcome to attend. Community drum circles help kids express themselves and experience the joy of making music. Together, we share family time, build community, foster self-confidence, and have fun! Parents are encouraged to participate and must stay with children.

Where:

VanderCook College of Music
3125 S. Federal St.
Chicago, IL 60616

When:

Free family drum circles happen every Saturday, 11:00-11:45 a.m.

For more information:

To learn more about our musical events or to inquire about private lessons, birthday parties, and corporate events at VanderCook, call (312) 225-6288 ext. 235 or visit www.vandercook.edu/drum

Percussion instruments are provided for all participants thanks to a special grant from REMO, Inc. that supports free community drum circles at VanderCook.

