

TITLE IX GRIEVANCE FORM

Title IX and its implementing federal regulations prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex in its programs and activities. VanderCook is committed to maintaining an educational, working, musical and living environment that is free from discrimination and harassment, including maintaining an environment in which no student, faculty or staff member is excluded from participation in or denied the benefits of its programs and activities as a result of gender, gender identity or sexual preference.

Should a student, faculty or staff member, or any other participant in the college's programs and activities feels that she or he has been subjected to discrimination on the basis of sex, she or he may use this form to document incidents or concerns to the attention of VanderCook's Title IX Coordinator for the purpose of obtaining a prompt and equitable resolution.
