If you intend to earn academic credit for the Total Band Director Workshop, August 11-12, 2010, sponsored by Eckroth Music (VanderCook course number 7160), you should be aware of the following policies of VanderCook College of Music:

CREDIT: To be eligible to receive graduate level credit for course 7160, a student must have a degree in a music-related discipline. Any exceptions must be approved directly by VanderCook College of Music. To earn credit, a student must: 1) attend sessions totaling at least 12.5 hours, and 2) complete a notebook summarizing and critiquing all sessions, to including all copies of all handouts, and other supporting materials. The deadline for notebook submission is September 9, one month after the conclusion of the workshop. More information is available at the workshop or from VanderCook College. Additionally, each student is encouraged to keep a journal documenting the sessions he or she has attended.

ECKROTH MUSIC TBD SCHOLARSHIP: A $50 scholarship will be awarded to all TBD participants registering for credit through VanderCook College of Music thanks to the gracious support of Eckroth

Music. Instead of paying $240 for two graduate credits, credit-earning credit-earning TBD participants only pay $190.

REGISTRATION: Students interested in taking 7160 for one (1) semester hour of graduate-level credit must register no later than August 19, 2010. Full tuition must be enclosed with registration. Registrations postmarked after that date will not be accepted for credit. Please send your registration directly to VanderCook.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION: If you have questions, please do not hesitate to call or write: VanderCook College of Music, Attn. Patrick Refsnider, Director of Continuing Education, 3140 South Federal Street, Chicago IL 60616-3731, 800/448-2655 or 312/225-6288.
