Choosing a college can seem overwhelming. This is one of the biggest decisions in your life, and we at VanderCook College of Music would like to help you through the process.

Visit and ask questions about the college experience in a relaxed environment. Junior Day activities will include hands-on clinics, mini concerts, preparing for college auditions, choosing a music major, and the student experience at VanderCook College of Music.

THE DAY WILL INCLUDE:

Breakfast Reception – We will be on hand to greet and direct you to our hospitality room.

Introductions and Welcome from college president Dr. Charles T. Menghini, and undergraduate dean Stacey Larson Dolan.

Break-out Sessions:

Students: How to Prepare for an Audition; Application Overview

Parents: Q&A with president Dr. Charles T. Menghini; Financial Aid Overview with director of admissions Amy Lenting.

Bring Your Instruments – Rehearse with the College Symphonic Band, Philharmonic Orchestra, Guitar Ensemble, or Chamber Singers.

Mini-Concert – Listen to current VanderCook students perform in outstanding ensembles.

Lunch at IIT – Enjoy a complimentary lunch with VanderCook faculty, staff, and students.

Student Panel – VanderCook students answer questions about VanderCook and college life in general.

“I picked VanderCook because it has such an enriched program. It’s like no other school.”

– Meghan Tokunaga-Scanlon, BMEd. '11
