6. The method(s) used by the institution to determine which students receive Emergency Financial Aid Grants and how much they would receive under Section 18004(a)(1) of the CARES Act is as follows:
   - All full- and part-time Title IV-eligible students with a completed FAFSA on record and enrolled in coursework at VanderCook College of Music in May, 2020, were issued a check for $350 to offset the costs of the disruption provided by the coronavirus pandemic.
   - Additional funds were made available to students enrolled at VanderCook pending receipt of an Emergency Grant Application, in which students were asked to request funds to cover specific costs associated with the disruption such as food, housing, course materials, technology, health care and/or child care.
   - The first round of applications needed to be received by May 11, 2020 at 11:59 p.m. and awards were granted on May 30.
   - Additional funding was to be made available to students pending a separate application.

7. The instructions provided by the institution to students concerning the Emergency Financial Aid Grants encompassed the following:
   - An e-mail was sent to all students informing them of their eligibility for special assistance, when to expect their $350 check, and how to apply for additional funding (see above). A follow-up e-mail was sent to all students who never completed a FAFSA informing them that they, too, may be eligible for funding pending receipt of the approved FAFSA. VanderCook’s financial aid officers were listed as contacts.
   - In addition, the undergraduate dean and the college president met with VanderCook’s Student Senate to inform them of this plan and to answer their questions about allowable purchases, eligibility and timing of funding.
